D-BACKS SUSTAINABILITY

The Arizona Diamondbacks sustainability program is an organization-wide commitment to improving its environmental performance and to use baseball as the platform with which we can influence players, fans, employees and corporate partners to positively affect environmental change.

GREEN INITIATIVES & PRACTICES

- Salt River Fields at Talking Stick received LEED Gold Certification for New Construction, the first LEED Gold-certified sports venue of its kind in the United States. Sustainable project elements include sitting the stadium to provide maximum shade, using native vegetation, minimizing stormwater runoff, maximizing the amount of fresh air brought in through its HVAC systems and using grass-covered parking lots, rather than asphalt, that can double as playing fields for the community when not in use.
- In partnership with Waste Management, the D-backs added 200 new recycling/waste receptacles throughout the ballpark prior to the 2017 season, contributing to a 170-percent increase in recycling tons and a 22-percent decrease in waste tonnage sent to landfill.
- In 2017, 50 high-speed, energy-efficient hand dryers were installed in concourse restrooms, which removed 366 miles of paper towels from the waste stream.
- The D-backs also established a new compost collection program and diverted 50 tons of organic materials from the waste stream, and debuted the first vertical garden in Major League Baseball in partnership with UnitedHealthcare.
- In recognition for their efforts in 2017, the D-backs were named by Major League Baseball as the Most Improved NL club for diversion and sustainability.
- The D-backs installed low-flow flush valves in 425 toilets and 260 urinals which reduced water usage by 50 percent in these areas during the 2017 season.
- In 2017, the D-backs and Levy Restaurants donated more than nine tons of stadium food from Chase Field to Church on the Street. The donated food equals 16,000 meals that help people in the Phoenix community.
- In 2014, the D-backs replaced fluorescent lighting along the main concourse with energy-efficient LED lighting that will reduce the main concourse lighting power consumption by 60 percent each year.
- Hosted the first-ever Zero-Waste Spring Training game in Arizona on March 13, 2014, at Salt River Fields to bring awareness to recycling and composting.
- Contributing members of the Green Sports Alliance, a coalition of professional sports teams and sporting venues committed to promoting "greening initiatives" in sports.
- APS Electric vehicle chargers located outside Chase Field for fans to charge their car and learn more about alternative energy-powered cars.
- Media guides are available electronically; D-backs Insider magazine is printed with soy ink on recycled paper; most marketing collateral printed on FSC certified products.
- Renovation of Game Seven Grill on the Gila River Casinos Plaza included high-efficiency LED lighting and conversion of building to Building Management System to efficiently control energy use.
- D-backs gameday event and concessions staff shirts are each made from RPET fabric (each shirt created from 16 recycled plastic bottles).
- Grease is recycled into biodiesel fuel and vendors distribute bio-based and compostable food service items.
- Offer a reusable "loyalty cup" to season-ticket holders.
- All paper products used at Chase Field are comprised of recycled material.

APS SOLAR PAVILION

- Dedicated on April 28, 2011. Partnership between D-backs, Maricopa County Stadium District & APS.
- Solar-shade structure covers 17,280 square feet.
- Solar panels will generate 100,000 kWh of solar energy, enough electricity to power the lights at Chase Field for 11 home games.

E.G. (KEN) KENDRICK

MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

A charter member of the ownership group that brought baseball to the Valley of the Sun, Ken Kendrick's involvement took on added significance in 2004 when he assumed the role of Managing General Partner of the Arizona Diamondbacks. Kendrick has taken an active role in the day-to-day operation of the D-backs and is the organization's designated representative when Major League Baseball owners convene during the course of the year.

During his tenure as Managing General Partner, the D-backs have reached the postseason three times, winning the 2017 Wild Card Game and twice capturing the NL West Division (2007, '11). The D-backs reached the NLCS for just the second time in the franchise's existence in 2007. As a commitment to the fans, Kendrick and the D-backs' ownership group continue to reinvest all profits into the team. Under Kendrick's leadership, through equity and debt restructures, the team has eliminated more than $200 million of debt, putting the franchise on sound financial ground for years to come. Additionally, he led the negotiations with FOX Sports Arizona on a 20-year extension that began in 2016 and is the largest financial transaction in franchise history.

Prior to last season, Kendrick and club President & CEO Derrick Hall hired Mike Hazen as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager who in turn, named Torey Lovullo as the eighth manager in franchise history. The changes led to a 24-game turnaround and an appearance in the 2017 Wild Card Game, which the D-backs won over the Colorado Rockies.

In December 2015, Kendrick authorized the largest free agent signing in franchise history when the team signed right-handed pitcher Zack Greinke to a six-year contract with the highest average annual value in baseball history. The team will enter 2018 with its highest payroll in club history.

Kendrick is in his 15th season in his current role and during that time, the franchise has become a model organization in Major League Baseball, hosting an All-Star Game at Chase Field in 2011, opening a Spring Training facility that is widely considered the finest in all of baseball in Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, and becoming one of the largest philanthropic entities in the Valley with charitable contributions topping $55 million since the organization's inception.

In 2013, ESPN the Magazine rated the D-backs as the No. 1 team in all of Major League Baseball in its Ultimate Standings, which gauges success both on and off the field and Ranking Arizona recently named the team the No. 1 place to work in the state among small companies.

While the D-backs are his primary business focus, Kendrick has also helped to change the face of downtown Phoenix, as he is a principal in the development of CityScape, Arizona's largest commercial/retail real estate development just steps from Chase Field.

After receiving a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from West Virginia University in 1965, Kendrick started his career with IBM. Three years later, he founded Datatel, Inc., which has become the worldwide leader in the development of computer software for the management of infrastructure technology for colleges, universities and foundations. In 2011, Datatel acquired SunGard Higher Education for $1.75 billion. The combined companies were renamed Ellucian and were sold in 2015 for $3.5 billion to TPG Capital.

Kendrick served as President of a Texas-based financial services technology company for four years in the 1980s. In 1989, Kendrick became the principal investor in Woodforest National Bank in The Woodlands, Texas, which now is one of the nation's largest primarily employee-owned banks. Woodforest National Bank, a $5.5-billion entity with 5,000 employees, is a subsidiary of Woodforest Financial Group, which was founded by Kendrick and also includes Merchants' Choice Credit Card Services and Par Real Estate.

Kendrick also owns Bumble Bee Ranch, which is devoted to providing western lifestyle experiences to children's charities throughout Arizona in addition to the Ironbridge Golf Club in Glenwood Springs, Colo.

He is very active in many philanthropic endeavors, beginning with his role as Chairman of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation. The D-backs organization, combined with its Foundation, has surpassed the $55-million mark in combined charitable giving since its inception, including more than $29 million in the last seven years. In 2011, Kendrick received the Ellis Island Medal of Honor from the National Ethnic Coalition (NECO). He and his wife, Randy, were previously named the Living and Giving Honorees for the Desert Southwest Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Kendrick also received the Visionary Award from the Foundation for Blind Children, Spirit of the Children Award from Childhelp USA, Today's Kids/Tomorrow's Stars honoree of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix, River Conservator of the Year by the Roaring Fork Conservancy and was named Man of the Year by the March of Dimes. He also serves on boards for various charities including the Barrow Neurological Institute, Brophy College Prep, the Phoenix Art Museum, The Buddy Program, Childhelp USA, UMOM New Day Centers, Challenger Center for Space Science Education, TGen Foundation, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Roaring Fork Conservancy, Phoenix Children's Hospital, Arizona Heart Foundation and is Founding Chairman of the Datatel Scholars Foundation.

As a prostate cancer survivor, Kendrick has made significant contributions over the years to fund research in that field, and in 2013, the Cleveland Clinic created The Kendrick Family Chair for Prostate Cancer Research.

Among other endowments funded by Kendrick are Project Excellence, an educational program for inner-city youth at Phoenix Country Day School (PCDS) whose mission is to enrich, engage and empower first-generation students (the first in their families to prepare for higher education) from local public schools and the Loyola Academy, which provides education to sixth, seventh and eighth graders at Brophy College Prep who demonstrate academic promise but have had limited educational opportunities. In addition, Kendrick has supported the Tuzos Soccer Club since 2009 to underwrite the team's expenses with costs for registration, field-use fees, uniforms and equipment. The club allows players from low-income families the opportunity to play in high-level tournaments, where players can be seen by college and soccer coaches and have the chance to receive scholarships.

An avid baseball card collector his entire life, Kendrick owns the famed 1909 T206 Honus Wagner card that was once owned by hockey great Wayne Gretzky. The Wagner card and 34 other iconic and rare baseball cards in Kendrick's collection, titled "The D-backs Collection," were previously displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., and at the Phoenix Art Museum. He was selected for membership in the Professional Sports Authenticator (PSA) Hall of Fame in 2017.

A native of Princeton, W.Va., Kendrick is an alumnus of West Virginia University in Morgantown and sits on the Board of Directors for the WVU Foundation. In 2016, Kendrick spearheaded the dedication of a memorial statue and helped his alma mater endow a scholarship in the name of the late WVU basketball player "Hot Rod" Hundley. In 2014, he was named Philanthropist of the Year by WVU, one year after receiving an honorary doctorate from the university, considered higher education's most prestigious recognition.

Kendrick is the founder of the Center for Free Enterprise at WVU and he and his wife have established programs at WVU's College of Business and Economics focused on free-market research and at the WVU Eye Institute to support children's vision outreach programs. Kendrick funded the WVU Hall of Traditions, which provides a first-class showcase for the tradition of Mountaineer football and serves as a recruiting focal point at WVU. In 2006, Kendrick was inducted into the state of West Virginia's Business Hall of Fame and was also named to the WVU Academy of Distinguished Alumni. In 2011, he was inducted into the inaugural Roll of Distinguished Alumni at WVU's College of Business and Economics. He also sits on an advisory board of the University of Charleston in Charleston, W.Va., where he received an honorary Doctorate degree in 2005.

In 2016, torrential rains over parts of West Virginia caused devastating flooding in many counties and Kendrick came to the aid of his home state, setting up a relief program that raised more than $1 million.

Kendrick and his wife founded the Freedom Center at the University of Arizona to promote the understanding and appreciation of the ideals of freedom and responsibility along four dimensions: published research, undergraduate education, graduate education, and community outreach. The Freedom Center also endows the Kendrick Chair in Philosophy and Economics.

The University of Georgia recently elected Kendrick to its Board of Visitors and its Magill Society and in 2016, he served as the annual guest lecturer at the UGA Terry College of Business Leadership program, a distinction shared by Falcons owner Arthur Blank and the legendary Warren Buffett. He has also underwritten a PhD program at UGA in support of the James C. Bonbright Center.

In 2014, Kendrick was inducted into the Sigma Nu Fraternity National Hall of Fame, an honor bestowed upon less than 60 people in the nearly 150-year history of the organization. Among those enshrined are "Bear" Bryant, Pat Riley, Archie and Eli Manning, Harrison Ford, broadcasters Al Michaels and Joe Buck, as well as former Major League managers Dick Howser and Dallas Green. He was inducted into the Aspen Trashmaster's Golf Hall of Fame in 2014, and in 2015, he received the Angel Award (Man of the Year) from The Buddy Program.

Kendrick was honored with the prestigious Herman W. Lay Memorial Award by the Association of Private Enterprise Education, named for the former Chairman of the Board of Pepsi. The award honors individuals who have emulated the pattern of success and philanthropy that Lay lived while representing the best that the free enterprise system produces.

He and Randy have two children, Cal and Catie, and make their home in Paradise Valley, Ariz.

DERRICK HALL

PRESIDENT & CEO

Considered by many to be among the leaders of the game, D-backs President & CEO Derrick Hall has turned the organization into a model franchise within the sports industry and throughout the business world during his 12 years at the helm of the club. Hall is the fourth-longest tenured CEO in Major League Baseball behind Atlanta's Terry McGuirk, St. Louis's Bill DeWitt Jr. and Cincinnati's Bob Castellini, each of whom have a controlling ownership interest in their respective franchise.

Hall focuses the organization's efforts in five areas he has called the "Circle of Success" –fan experience, performance, community, culture and financial efficiency– each of which has seen tremendous growth during his tenure. The success of the franchise during Hall's tenure has led to numerous honors, including ESPN the Magazine tabbing the D-backs as the top Major League franchise in 2013 and sixth overall among the 122 professional sports franchises in the publication's Ultimate Standings, which is based on eight categories on and off the field.

Hall's leadership has helped guide the D-backs to three postseason appearances, including two National League West Division Championships (2007, '11) and one NLCS (2007). Last season, the D-backs reversed their record and captured the National League Wild Card after Hall and Managing General Partner Ken Kendrick hired Executive Vice President & General Manager Mike Hazen to oversee the franchise's baseball operations.

With a focus on creating the best fan experience in all of sports, Hall has succeeded in accomplishing that goal at both Chase Field and at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the D-backs' Spring Training home near Scottsdale. Stadium enhancements at Chase Field that have taken place under Hall's guidance include the APS solar pavilion, Game Seven Grill, HD scoreboard in center field, the Sandlot, the Coors Light Strike Zone, All-You-Can-Eat Seats, The Draft Room and value-item pricing at concession stands and Team Shop locations throughout the ballpark. Hall also installed, named and created a FAWTSY (Find a Way to Say Yes) customer service policy throughout the organization to further improve upon the extraordinary fan experience. Last year marked the 11th consecutive season that the team offered the lowest Fan Cost Index in Major League Baseball.

On the heels of negotiating the largest financial transaction in franchise history –a historic 20-year television rights deal with FOX Sports Arizona which started in 2016– the D-backs took the innovative step of evolving the team's on-field attire, a two-year process that was led by Hall and his leadership team with input from the players and fans. This includes eight distinct uniform options and the reintroduction of one of the franchise's popular original colors, teal, as well as a bold gray color for the team's road uniforms. In addition, a sublimated diamond pattern adorns the shoulder, back and sleeve on various uniforms, a subtle reference to the club's name, snakeskin and diamond shape of a baseball field.

In the community, Hall has positioned the D-backs as one of the largest philanthropic entities in the Valley. In 2017, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and the D-backs' organization surpassed the $55 million mark in charitable giving since their inception in 1998, including nearly $45 million in the past 12 years under Hall's direction. In 2014, the team launched the D-backs Give Back Jersey program which will outfit more than 60,000 youth players across 103 leagues this season. During the 2013 Yarnell Hill fire, the D-backs were able to give back more than $700,000 on behalf of their fans to the families of the 19 firefighters who lost their lives. In 2008, Hall established the Michael Wogan Season Ticket Scholarship Program, a first-of-its-kind program for fans or existing season ticket holders who may have experienced a change in circumstances, providing families with more than 425 full-season tickets for a value of nearly $850,000 since its inception.

The unique corporate culture of the D-backs, which was created by Hall, led Yahoo! and Forbes to deem the club among the "Best Places to Work in Sports." In 2013, the sports industry's highly regarded recruiting network, TeamWork Online, tabbed him as the "Best Boss" in sports, and the organization has been named on several occasions as the "Most Admired Company for Workplace Culture" by AzBusiness Magazine and BestCompaniesAZ. Fittingly, the D-backs' physical front office was rebranded the D-backs Culture & Innovation Center before being rated No. 1 on Ranking Arizona's Best Places to Work list among small businesses.

Among the programs Hall has created is the President's Council, comprised of select members of the executive management team and a rotating committee consisting of the organization's Employee of the Month winners, to organize company culture events throughout the year. He also established employee recognition programs like "A-Game All-Stars" to reward game-day employees for exceptional service on a monthly basis throughout the season. The organization's investment in its employees resulted in the D-backs becoming the first sports organization to be named among the "Best Places to Work" by the Phoenix Business Journal for 11 consecutive years from 2007-17.

In 2016, the Arizona Republic named Hall one of 16 Arizonans to watch, citing his "positive influence [that] grows larger by the year" as someone who "works effortlessly to promote Metro Phoenix and the state." He was also named by Rise Global to its list of 100 Most Influential CEOs, a group that includes names such as Rupert Murdoch, Richard Branson, Elon Musk, Warren Buffett, Tim Cook, Biz Stone and Larry Ellison.

In the last 13 years, the team has eliminated more than $200 million of debt through equity and debt restructures, putting the club on sound financial ground for years to come.

The organization continues to rack up awards and honors under Hall's leadership, including the Arizona Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Corporation of the Year (2017), AAAED's Champion of Diversity (2017), the Dominican Republic Sports & Education Academy (2016), One Community Spotlight on Success (2015), Make-A-Wish Foundation's Chris Greicius Award (2014), the Phoenix Indian Center's Leon Grant Spirit of the Community Award (2014), Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce IMPACT Award–Community Champion (2013), Arizona's Corporate Excellence Community Impact Award (2013), City of Phoenix Equal Opportunity Department–Excellence Award (2013), Arizona Business Leadership Award (2012), "Organization of the Year" (2011) and the DREAMR award (2012) by the Downtown Phoenix Partnership, "Most Admired Company" and "Top Leadership" by AzBusiness Magazine (2011). In 2010, the D-backs were given the inaugural United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award, which named the D-backs the most positive team in the world.

Hall's vision to further establish the organization as a sports industry leader while spurring economic development and impact throughout the Valley came to fruition in 2011, as the team hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Chase Field for the first time ever, creating an economic impact of more than $67 million. Hall's persistence in convincing MLB to award the Mid-

Summer Classic to the D-backs allowed Chase Field and Downtown Phoenix to be showcased in more than 100-million homes across the world, while working diligently with city leaders, politicians and officials to ensure that fans had the finest All-Star Game experience.

Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the D-backs' 140-acre Spring Training facility shared with Colorado Rockies on Salt River Indian Community land near Scottsdale, Ariz., that Hall negotiated and designed, has greatly added to the already $350 million of economic impact for the Valley associated with Spring Training each year. In both 2011 and '12, the D-backs set a franchise record for Spring Training attendance while the two clubs set an all-time Major League record for combined attendance at a single Spring Training facility. Salt River Fields was the first pro sports training facility in the U.S. to be built on tribal land and was privately funded without the use of any taxpayer dollars. The facility received LEED-Gold certification from the U.S. Green Building Council in 2011, the first venue of its kind to achieve this designation.

Hall's vision for Salt River Fields was to keep fan interaction with players a top priority while also ensuring maximum comfort for visitors at the 11,000-seat ballpark. Both goals were accomplished, as the main stadium is located in the middle of the facility to enable fans to mingle throughout and get an up-close look at D-backs players as they practice. A unique roof structure and a northeast-facing field allow for approximately 85 percent of the fans in all 7,000 fixed seats to be shaded as the game progresses.

Hall routinely communicates with D-backs fans as part of his "one fan at a time" concept by answering every letter, email or phone call. He conducts monthly chats online and interacts with fans on Twitter and Instagram (@DHallDbacks). Hall spends most of his time at home games communicating with the fans in the stands to ensure their experience at Chase Field is exceptional.

Among the projects outside of Chase Field and Salt River Fields that have Hall's fingerprints on them is the Legends Entertainment District, a joint venture between the D-backs, the Phoenix Suns and the City of Phoenix that is the first of its kind between two professional sports organizations. The project has transformed the look of Downtown Phoenix by creating experiential outdoor marketing opportunities and an energetic backdrop for visitors and residents to enjoy their experience.

Hall was personally selected to join a handful of corporate leaders by Governor Doug Ducey as one of his first orders of business to form a new pro-business group. The Arizona Zanjeros are focused exclusively on economic development, defining Arizona's brand and marketing the state to CEOs across the country and around the world. In 2015, he joined the Governor's delegation on a weeklong trip to Israel.

Hall sits on Major League Baseball's International Committee and under his guidance, the D-backs hosted the first round of the 2013 World Baseball Classic. Hall has represented the team on goodwill trips to Mexico, Japan, the Dominican Republic, Australia and New Zealand, helping to bring international recognition to the franchise. In 2014, his continued efforts to showcase the D-backs on the global stage reached its highest point as the club hosted the Dodgers during MLB's historic Opening Series in Sydney, Australia, which was subsequently named the International Sports Event of the Year.

Derrick Hall presented Phoenix Children's Hospital for Childhood Cancer Awareness with a $200,000 donation on Sept. 23, 2017.

Hall also serves on MLB's diversity committee and the Commissioner's on-field diversity task force. In that regard, the D-backs have also been industry leaders. In 2016, the team hosted the highly regarded MLB Business Diversity Summit in Arizona in an effort to bring more diverse candidates into front offices around the game. For its efforts, the team was awarded the Jackie Robinson Most Valuable Diverse Business Partner award by Major League Baseball. The team has been named for four consecutive years to the Arizona Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's Million Dollar Circle of Excellence as an organization that spends more than $1 million annually with minority or women-owned businesses. In 2014, the D-backs became the first MLB organization to sign One Community's Unity Pledge, which supports and advocates for workplace inclusion and protection for all, including LGBT community members. For his commitment to equality, Hall received the prestigious Torch of Liberty Award from the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2014. The award, ADL's highest honor, was established to recognize individuals who have exhibited extraordinary humanitarianism, and whose everyday actions exemplify the principles of opportunity, anti-discrimination, equal rights, community involvement and fairness for all.

Hall currently serves on or is associated with 25 boards, including the Arizona Mexico Commission, Great Hearts Academies, Arizona Chamber of Commerce, ArizonaOn, Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, National Vice President of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, National Advisory Council for Pancreatic Cancer, Stand Up 2 Cancer Melanoma Dream Team Sponsor, Cancer Treatment Centers of America, Valley of the Sun YMCA and Positive Coaching Alliance. Hall is serving as the 2018 Phoenix Police Reserve Foundation Chair, the 2018 Make-A-Wish America Nominating and Governance Chair and the 2017-18 Pride Campaign Chair for the Phoenix Zoo. He is the past Chairman of the Board for Make-A-Wish Arizona and current board member for Make-A-Wish America, is also a past Chairman of the Board for the Valley of the Sun United Way, where he raised $47 million throughout the Phoenix area as the VSUW's 2009-10 campaign chairman. He has also raised money by serving as an event chairman for the Prostate On-Site Project (POP) Walk, 75th Anniversary March of Dimes, March for Babies Walk, The Wellness Center, several Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) events, Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center (SARRC), St. Vincent de Paul, Florence Crittenton and the Foundation for Blind Children.

Hall served as master of ceremonies at the 2015 Arizona inaugural ceremonies and gives numerous keynote speeches to various groups or conventions throughout the country about his unique vision on leadership, customer service and culture. He has spoken to U.S. Air Force Academy cadets at the annual National Leadership and Character Symposium. He donates speaking engagement fees back to the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and other local non-profit organizations he supports.

A native of Los Angeles, Hall joined the D-backs in May 2005 as Senior Vice President, Communications and served in numerous capacities prior to being named president in 2006 and adding the title of CEO in 2009. Prior to joining the D-backs, Hall made a brief stop as Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications for a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles, where he increased brand awareness. He spent parts of 12 seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, joining the organization's Single-A Florida State League affiliate in Vero Beach, Fla., as an intern in 1992 and departing as the club's Sr. Vice President, Communications in 2004. In between, he served key roles during three ownership changes with the Dodgers and was recognized for reuniting Fernando Valenzuela with the organization after hiring him as a color analyst for the team's Spanish radio broadcasts in 2003.

Hall stepped outside of baseball for employment during the 1999 season, as he hosted a three-hour morning talk show on the Dodgers' flagship station (XTRA 1150 AM) and served as host of the "Dodger Game Day" pregame radio show for home games. He also had a stint in front of the camera as a weekend sports anchor at KNBC-TV in Los Angeles.

He received a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University, where he was named "Man of the Year" in 1991, in broadcasting and journalism, and a master's degree from Ohio University in sports administration. Hall is currently a co-chair of ASU President Michael Crow's President's Club and in 2016, he received ASU's prestigious Founder's Day Alumni Achievement Award, becoming the first student in school history to receive both that honor and the ASU Young Alumni Achievement Award. Hall was inducted into the ASU Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communications Alumni Hall of Fame in 2002. Hall was the keynote speaker for ASU's Cronkite school convocation in 2008, becoming the first Cronkite alum to deliver a commencement speech at the school's graduation, and also spoke at the W.P. Carey School of Business convocation in 2012. In 2016, he received ASU's Pitchfork Award for his accomplishments and was honored at the ASU Founder's Dinner with the Alumni Achievement Award.

In 2006, Ohio University's Sports Administration Program recognized Hall as the 25th recipient of the Charles R. Higgins Distinguished Alumnus Award. In 2012, he received an honorary Doctorate degree from the University of Phoenix and spoke at the school's convocation.

His philanthropic efforts led to Hall and the D-backs being honored at the 2018 Boys & Girls Club of Metro Phoenix signature Stars dinner. He was named the APS Peacemaker Award at Valle del Sol's Profiles of Success, the Bill Shover Leadership Award from United Blood Services and the Phoenix Award by the Phoenix Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) in 2013. He was the inaugural recipient of the Goldwater Community Service Award in 2012 by the Active 20-30 Club of Phoenix. In 2007, he was named to the Phoenix Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" class, was the recipient of the "Community Lifeline Award" from Teen Lifeline and was named the Phoenix Father's Day Council "Father of the Year" to benefit the American Diabetes Association. The SportsBusiness Journal added him to its prestigious "Forty Under 40" class in 2008. The Phoenix Business Journal also named Hall to its inaugural list of "Most Admired CEOs" in 2009. Hall is a member of the ASU W.P. Carey School of Business "Dean's Council of 100," Young Presidents' Organization and the Thunderbirds.

Derrick Hall speaks at the MLB Diversity Business Summit on March 9, 2016 at Chase Field.

He faced his greatest personal challenge when he was diagnosed with prostate cancer in September 2011, just as the team was battling for a division title. Hall immediately went public with the diagnosis in order to encourage other men to get tested after age 40. Following successful surgery to remove his prostate, Hall is now cancer free and has become a tireless advocate of cancer-fighting charities while continuing to speak publicly about the health challenge he faces. In 2014, he launched his own 501(c)(3) organization, the Derrick Hall Pro-State Foundation, which is dedicated to serving as a comprehensive tool for those who have been diagnosed with prostate cancer and their families to help them understand the challenges and choices they face and how they can maintain a "pro" state of mind. In 2014, he was honored with the USC Institute of Urology's Louis Zamperini Courage Award and the Pro-State Foundation was honored by Jane Seymour's Open Hearts Foundation, which supports organizations that are committed to positively impacting lives in the areas of health, education, arts and sports.

In his first season leading the club's baseball operations, the D-backs reversed their record from 69-93 in 2016 to 93-69 in 2017, reaching the postseason for the first time since 2011. Among the notable moves in Hazen's first season were the acquisitions of Taijuan Walker, Ketel Marte and J.D. Martinez, each of whom became key contributors to the 2017 playoff team.

Hazen joined the D-backs from the Boston Red Sox where he spent the previous 11 seasons, included winning world championships in 2007 and '13. Most recently, he served as Boston's Sr. Vice President & General Manager following 4 seasons as the club's Assistant GM. He and his wife, Nicole, reside in Phoenix and have four sons: Charlie, John, Teddy and Sam.

CULLEN MAXEY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS & CRO

Cullen Maxey is in his 12th season with the D-backs in 2018 and first as Executive Vice President, Business Operations & Chief Revenue Officer, a title he earned this offseason following eight years as EVP, Business Operations. Maxey oversees all revenue-generating departments throughout the organization, including Analytics, Broadcasting, Content & Communications, Community Affairs, Corporate Partnerships, Special Projects/Fan Experience, Marketing, Spring Training and Ticket Sales & Service.

Since joining the D-backs as Vice President, Corporate Partnerships, Maxey has stimulated revenue generation throughout the organization by enacting an inclusive strategic planning process and a proactive sales and service approach.

Under his leadership, the Corporate Partnership team has increased revenue more than 50 percent, while decreasing the marketing inventory and total number of partners. In 2016, the D-backs teamed up with PetSmart to create the first-ever, season-long dog-friendly ballpark with a dedicated new PetSmart Patio and "Dog Days of Summer" program, two concepts developed by Maxey.

For the seventh straight year, the D-backs hosted the Most Valuable Partner awards program, a first-of-its-kind event created by Maxey as a more effective way to teach year-round marketing practices in a captivating way that motivates partners to participate. The on-stage production and dinner showcases the winners of each category and has garnered local and national attention, just one of several ways the D-backs seek to provide a better return for corporate partners. It has been lauded as a revolutionary way of improving the business-to-business summit in sports.

The D-backs' fundraising and community giving have reached their highest levels, as the team and Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation have now given back more than $55 million since their inception and raised more than $40 million since 2009. The D-backs Give Back Jersey Program has been a huge success and will expand to nearly 103 youth leagues and 50,000 athletes this year, each of whom will be wearing D-backs uniforms. Additional community programs created during his tenure include the Back-to-School Challenge which has awarded $750,000 to local schools; the 50/50 raffle which has raised more than $5.5 million for the community; the annual Celebrity Golf Classic benefiting military veterans programs; and the annual Race Against Cancer benefiting cancer related charities throughout the Valley. Maxey also created the D-backs Executive Council which brings together key executives throughout the Valley to contribute ideas, help fundraise and assist in executing the team's philanthropic efforts.

The D-backs' ticket sales strategies have continued to pay off, as an increased focus on business analytics has allowed the team to increase total ticket revenue, season ticket revenue, group sales and suite sales in each of the past eight seasons despite a challenging sales climate. Maxey led the development of the Season Ticket Advantage program, created to increase the value of being a season ticket holder and grow retention.

Maxey played an integral role in directing his business operations team to ensure the success of the 2011 All-Star Game, which was played at Chase Field for the first time, the 2013 World Baseball Classic and 2014 Opening Series in Sydney, Australia. In 2016, the D-backs took the innovative step of evolving the team's on-field attire, a two-year process led by Maxey's team. He has also played a key role in the creation and execution of Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the Spring Training facility on Salt River Indian Community land and the multi-million dollar Legends Entertainment District, the team's unique partnership with the Phoenix Suns that has helped revitalize downtown Phoenix. With 55,000 square feet of dynamic outdoor digital and static signage opportunities, the project has developed revenue for both teams while helping promote ticket sales and deliver team messages to more than 8-million annual visitors and 700 diverse events each year.

Maxey's path to the D-backs began with revenue generating positions at the Phoenix Suns from 1997-2001. He served as VP of Corporate Sales for the Phoenix Coyotes from 2001-04, which was highlighted by the opening of their new arena in Glendale, Ariz. Prior to joining the D-backs, Maxey spent two years as the General Manager of Sun Devil Sports Marketing for CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, the multimedia rights holder of Arizona State University Athletics.

The Phoenix native is a member of the Thunderbirds and serves on the board for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, Boys & Girls Club of Metro Phoenix, St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center Foundation and the Special Olympics of Arizona.

He and his wife, Brenda, have two children, Will and Lizzie, and reside in Chandler.

JOHN FISHER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES AND MARKETING

John Fisher is in his 11th year with the D-backs in 2018, and eighth as the organization's Senior Vice President, Ticket Sales & Marketing. Fisher oversees all groups, suites and season ticket sales, service and ticket operations as well as all marketing efforts for the D-backs.

Fisher, who became a team Senior Vice President prior to 2011, originally joined the D-backs in October 2007 as Director, Season Ticket Sales and Service and managed a staff of season tickets sales representatives that set an organizational record in new ticket package revenue for the 2008 season. His team increased the organization's full-season equivalents in 2008 for only the second time in franchise history and second time since 2002 after winning the World Series in 2001.

Under Fisher, the team's Group Sales and Suite Sales efforts have seen consistent growth and set organization record highs in 2017 while the Ticket Services Team has renewed at all-time high levels. Total attendance has topped 2-million fans during each season of Fisher's tenure despite inconsistent team performance. With a focus on staff development, Fisher's sales team created a first of its kind college student program and new staffing models that are widely used throughout Major League Baseball.

In 2011, he assisted Major League Baseball in pricing and sales strategies for the All-Star Game, which took place at Chase Field.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Fisher was the Vice President of Sales and Service for the Minor League Lake Erie Monsters of the America Hockey League for one season (2006-07) after spending six (2001-07) leading group sales efforts for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and Quicken Loans Arena. With the Cavaliers, Fisher directed a staff that became the first NBA team to surpass $3 million in group sales revenue and finished in the Top 5 in total group sales revenue for four straight seasons while creating a number of best practices for the league. He also spent four seasons (1997-98, 2000-01) in the Pittsburgh Pirates' ticket office and two (1998-2000) with the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning in group sales.

Fisher is a 1998 graduate of Robert Morris University in Pittsburgh, where he received his bachelor of science in Business Administration and Sports Management.

Fisher and his wife, Deb, reside in Scottsdale.

Prior to the inaugural '98 season, he oversaw the completion and start-up of the Tucson training complex and consulted on the development of the new facility at Salt River Fields. In '99, he identified the impact of player injuries and the effect on the player development process from a cost and appropriate time to evaluate perspective. Working with trainers, baseball executives and medical providers, he devised, implemented and managed an injury/workers compensation claim management approach that is proactive from the time an injury occurs through the doctor's final clearance. As a result, the D-backs consistently have the lowest rehab and workers compensation insurance premiums and are among the lowest in disabled list time in baseball.

Moving from baseball operations to finance in 2004, Bradley became the Controller in order to gain more experience and perspective on the operational and financial functions of the entire business. Recognizing his leadership abilities, he was promoted to VP, Finance in 2006. A past member of the President Council (charged with business direction and company culture), Bradley develops effective, motivated and considerate staff while also working closely with the EVP/CFO on club debt and equity transactions, debt service compliance and other business matters.

In 2012, he led the effort to renegotiate and extend the club's lease of its Dominican Republic training facility, revamping the leadership there, managing facility improvements, and implementing policies to improve operations. Also in 2012, with the intent to increase community volunteerism amongst D-backs employees, identify and develop leaders, and build upon D-backs culture, Bradley created the Dbacks Give Back League (DGBL). Over 100 employees joined together to form nine teams from 2012 to 2014. Each team created a plan to reach into the community. From homelessness, to foster care, youth education, at risk populations, and the hungry, the DGBL's impact each year has been tremendous. While truly volunteer oriented, the DGBL resulted in over $375,000 and $500,000 in cash, in-kind, and time donations each year. Bradley was awarded the D-backs' first ever Innovation Award in 2012 for his efforts.

A CPA, Bradley worked as the Asst. GM, Business Operations for the Phoenix Firebirds of the Pacific Coast League from 1994-97. ROLAND HEMOND

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT & CEO

One of the most respected and experienced executives in baseball, Roland Hemond is in his 11th season during his second tour of duty with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2018. He rejoined the D-backs midway through the 2007 season as Special Assistant to the President & CEO and in 2011, was selected as the second recipient of the Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's Board of Directors for his extraordinary efforts to enhance the game's positive impact on society. Presented with the award in Cooperstown, N.Y., the honor is bestowed upon an individual whose efforts broadened the game's appeal and whose character, integrity and dignity is comparable to the late O'Neil, who passed away in 2006 after eight decades of contributions to the game. O'Neil was honored as the first recipient of the award in 2008.

In 2017, the seating area behind home plate was renamed "The Roland Hemond Scout Section" in honor of his accomplishments throughout the game.

Since joining the D-backs, Hemond has provided counsel to Derrick Hall and strengthened the D-backs' relationships throughout Major League Baseball while enhancing the organization's initiatives in Mexico. For three consecutive Spring Trainings from 2008-10 and again in 2015, the D-backs played exhibition games in Hermosillo, Mexico. He has represented the team at the annual First-Year Player Draft at MLB Network's headquarters in Secaucus, N.J.

In 2015, the D-backs dedicated Roland Hemond Field, which is located at Alkire Park in Phoenix, and was the team's 35th field in the "Diamonds Back" Field Building Program, presented by APS. The dedication ceremony was attended by local baseball, political and business leaders.

A 3-time winner of MLB's Executive of the Year award, Hemond has 67 years of professional baseball experience, including 23 seasons as a general manager with the White Sox (1971-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and five seasons as Senior Executive Vice President with the D-backs (1996-2000). He later served as Executive Advisor with the White Sox (2000-07) until rejoining the D-backs. Hemond, who is considered the architect of the highly successful Arizona Fall League that began in 1992, is a nationally recognized ambassador of the game and a highly sought-after speaker. His professionalism, friendliness and willingness to contribute ideas and advice are attributes unmatched in the industry.

He was inducted into the Boston Braves Historical Association Hall of Fame (2007), was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum Award at the New York baseball writer's dinner and the Honors Award from the Baseball Coaches of America (2006). In 2003, Hemond was honored with the esteemed Branch Rickey Award, presented by the Rotary Club of Denver to individuals in baseball who contribute unselfishly to their community and who are strong role models for others. He was the first non-uniformed person to receive the award and remains the only one with that distinction.

During his first stint with the White Sox, Hemond was named Executive of the Year in 1972 and 1983. The 1972 White Sox went 87-67 for the organization's first winning record in five seasons. The 1983 club went 99-63 and won the AL West Division title by 20 games, which was then a record for largest winning margin. While with Baltimore in 1989, Hemond was tabbed Executive of the Year for the third time after the Orioles improved 32.5 games from the previous season and made a 22-game improvement in the standings. During his tenure with the White Sox and Orioles, Hemond negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players.

Hemond was honored by Minor League Baseball for his longtime dedication and service to the game as the 2001 "King of Baseball." Hemond's baseball career began in 1951 as a front office member of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. He also worked with the Boston/Milwaukee Braves from 1952-60 before being hired as Scouting and Farm Director of the Los Angeles Angels in 1961. Hemond remained in that role until joining the White Sox in September 1970.

Hemond is president of the Association of Professional Ballplayers of America, a non-profit organization that helps former and current players and baseball personnel in need. Along with White Sox executive and former agent Dennis Gilbert and scouts Dave Yoakum and Harry Minor, Hemond helped found the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation to provide assistance to longtime scouts who are in need of special support. In 2016, the organization gave Hemond its first and only Outstanding Achievement Award at its annual awards reception.

Four annual awards are named in Hemond's honor: the first is presented by the White Sox in honor of those dedicated to bettering the lives of others through extraordinary personal sacrifice; the second is the Baseball America Award, presented to the person who has made major contributions to scouting and player development; the third is the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) Award, given to the executive who has displayed great respect for scouts; and the final one is presented by the Arizona Diamondbacks to the individual in scouting who exemplifies the qualities of strong character, dedication to the D-backs' organization and an unfailing work ethic in the search for champi-

The elder Quinn was a part owner of the Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves and was the President of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum from 1948-51. Hemond's son, Bob, is the founding partner of the Pacific Coast League's Sacramento River Cats.

In 2015, Johnson reached the pinnacle of his career as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., becoming the first player to feature an Arizona Diamondbacks cap on his plaque. The 5-time Cy Young Award winner (4 with the D-backs), ranks second on the all-time Major League strikeout list with 4,875, and first among left-handers. A 10-time All-Star, he won 303 games in his career, including a perfect game, and holds nearly every major career pitching record in D-backs franchise history.

Shortly after his Cooperstown induction, Johnson had his No. 51 retired by the franchise, becoming just the third player to receive that honor, joining Luis Gonzalez (No. 20) and Jackie Robinson (No. 42).

In 2001, Johnson was named the co-MVP of the D-backs' World Series championship, helping the franchise win the only major sports title in the state's history in just the fourth year of the franchise's existence. After striking out 11 New York Yankees in a 3-hit shutout in Game 2, Johnson pitched 7.0 innings to earn the victory in the do-or-die Game 6 and then came on in relief during Game 7 to earn the victory. Of the team's 11 postseason wins that year, Johnson earned 5 of them.

Johnson appeared in 22 big league seasons for the Montreal Expos, Seattle Mariners, Houston Astros, D-backs, New York Yankees Yankees and San Francisco Giants. His 303 career victories rank as the fifth-most by a left-hander in Major League history, while he holds 5 of the 7 highest single-season strikeout totals by a southpaw in modern history. His 5 Cy Youngs rank second all-time to Roger Clemens' seven and he is 1 of 2 pitchers to win the award 4 consecutive times (1999-2002) along with Pedro Martinez. In 1999, Johnson joined Gaylord Perry in the rare feat of winning the award in both the American and National Leagues.

Following his retirement from the game, Johnson has dedicated significant time to photography, traveling around the world to capture some of the most unique places in Africa, Asia, Europe and the Middle East in addition to numerous concerts and high-profile sporting events. His passion for photography dates to his days as a student at the University of Southern California, where he majored in photojournalism and shot for the "Daily Trojan."

(Baseball Assistance Team), he dedicated his time to helping fellow baseball players who had fallen on hard times. He contributed his vast knowledge of the game as a consultant to the Commissioner's Office. A Phoenix resident, Black worked in the D-backs' Community Affairs department and shared his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Black was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities.

In remembrance of him, a baseball bearing his name hangs from the rafters of Chase Field.

Zweig's strategic focus throughout the organization has provided cutting-edge, relevant and reliable technology in business efficiencies, baseball operations and fan experience. Since joining the D-backs, his department has created several industry-leading and innovative fan experience technologies at Chase Field and Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the team's Spring Training home. These include new WiFi for business and fans in 2018, iBeacons for a more enhanced Mobile Fan Interaction experience, enhanced cellular services with a distributed antenna system, new ballpark kiosks and applications for the team's fan loyalty and sweepstakes programs and a mobile food-ordering platform allowing fans to order food from their cell phones and pick up at an express lane. His team also created and installed dynamic signage and video walls in several locations throughout Chase Field and Salt River Fields to allow for team brand messaging, fan information, player and media communications and corporate partners branding. Zweig helped to architect integrations with various partner technologies for ticketing (Ticketmaster), D-bucks loaded tickets (IMS) and 2 point-of-sale systems (Micros and Retail Pro) allowing for concession stand and Team Shop sales.

Zweig works closely with the baseball operations department and coaching staff to improve various aspects of tools and technologies used for baseball, including video technologies for the Major League team and Minor League affiliates, scouting technologies, coaching aids and communication platforms for the training staff, among others.

The Illinois native has focused on improving internal business operations by designing a Business Applications platform to allow for internal business/employee collaborations as well as providing the organization better business analytics and decision-making tools through its business intelligence capabilities, thus improving the company's speed of business. This includes the development of industry-leading CRM tools for Ticketing and Corporate Partnerships.

Zweig joined the D-backs after spending two years as the Vice President, Information Technology at Ask.com, a leading search-engine company and a division of Interactive Corp. He spent time at the company's headquarters in Oakland, Calif., supporting IT technologies and infrastructures across multiple global e-commerce companies, including Ask.com, Evite.com, LendingTree.com, Ticketmaster.com and Match.com. He also enabled business IT functions that supported user behavior tracking, traffic analysis, search relevance, advertising performance, fraud and suspect analysis and global enterprise reporting.

Prior to joining Ask.com, Zweig spent three years at eBay where he left as Director, Information Technology & Global Telecom and managed IT functions for the company's PayPal division and reported directly to the CIO. He also created and managed an all-hours support organization across several world-wide data centers and was responsible for scaling PayPal's customer support infrastructure from one U.S.-based contact center to nine global centers within two years.

Zweig's background also includes six years as a management and technology consultant at Accenture where he delivered large leading-edge technology projects for several global Fortune 500 companies. SEATTLE "KID"

- Grew up a big fan of the Seattle Mariners and his favorite player was Ken Griffey Jr.…family had season tickets through his dad's company (second level, first-base line).
- Started playing baseball at 3 years old with a plastic bat and switch hit until he was 9, until he realized Griffey Jr. only hit left-handed.

JD2

- Has "JD2" stitched into his glove for his family friend, Josh Dickerson, who passed away from rhabdomyocarcoma, a rare form of cancer…#2 was Josh's high school number at O'Dea High School (Jake's main rival school).
- Jake also wears a band with the same abbreviation, along with the words Courage + Belief = Life .
- Josh met Jake's sister, Megan, in a support group she was in after battling leukemia.
- Josh was first diagnosed with the cancer in the soft tissue of his wisdom teeth in 2009…he refused chemo his senior year of high school so he could play his final season…passed away in July 2012 when Jake was playing for Adv. Rookie Missoula.
- Weeks from dying, Josh brought a ball over and wanted Jake's autograph because it would be that of a Major Leaguer, "He was right."

CALL TO THE SHOW

- Current Padres manager Andy Green was his Minor League skipper when he was told he was called up to the D-backs in 2014.
- Jake's whole family but him was at his grandparents' Priest Lake, Idaho, vacation cabin when he called with the news…no one was available to pick up until the end of the day when his mom saw all the messages and got a hold of him…he said "I've got good news and I've got bad news. The bad news is your vacation is over. The good news is you're coming to Phoenix to watch me play in the Major Leagues."
- The family jumped in the car and drove to Spokane, Wash., to fly to Phoenix for his MLB debut the next day.

U-DUB

Attended the University of Washington…earned honorable mention All-Pac 12 in 2010-12 and Freshman All-American honors by Collegiate Baseball in 2010.

- Was the only player since 1965 to record his combination of numbers (30+ doubles, 8+ triples, 26+ home runs) while playing third base.
- His .612 slugging pct. in the first half was the best in the NL and second best in team history, trailing Luis Gonzalez's .745 slugging pct. in 2001…also ranked among D-backs first-half leaders in triples (T-1st, 7) and homers (2nd, 20).
- Named the D-backs' 2016 nominee for the Hank Aaron Award.

- In promotion of his candidacy, the D-backs incorporated a variety of lamb-themed elements to Chase Field for the week, including bringing a live lamb to batting practice (photo below).

GIVING BACK

Sister, Megan, had leukemia at 3, and is now cancer free…Jake is not a fan of hospitals, but he knows how much the team's visits to Phoenix Children's Hospital mean to the community and to the kids, so he enjoys those visits.

Jake Lamb makes a visit to Phoenix Children's Hospital on June 6, 2017.

2017 REVIEW

- Combined to go 5-8 with a 4.95 ERA between Triple-A Gwinnett, Double-A Mississippi and Single-A Adv. Florida in the Braves organization.
- In 16 starts for Triple-A Gwinnett, was 3-7 with a 5.80 ERA…on the 10-day disabled list from April 10-May 20 with right shoulder tendinitis.

#RALLYvsCANCER

Shaved his head and helped raise funds and awareness for kids with cancer through the Rally Foundation in Atlanta.

ALL HE DOES IS WIN

Established a Major League record with his team winning 23 consecutive starts from May 29, 2010 to Sept. 20, 2012, the longest such steak since the Yankees' Whitey Ford (22) from 1950-1953.

KRIS KRINGLE

Christmas is his favorite holiday…his neighbor ships in 3 tons of snow for the neighborhood kids to play in.

Named Pitcher of the Month 3 times (Aug. 2012, Sept. 2012, Sept. 2013)…was the first Braves pitcher to win the award in back-to-back months since Greg Maddux in June - July 2001.

GRANDPA PRAISE

Former teammate David Ross said of Medlen: "Its just so fun to catch that guy. You're trying to set up a game plan, and sometimes you have to deviate from it if a guy doesn't make a pitch, or if he can't. With Medlen, you're always able to stick to the plan you want. It's a blast."

GOING STREAKING

Had a career-long 34.1-inning scoreless streak from Aug. 11-Sept. 3, 2012, the longest in the Majors that season.

POSTSEASON RESUME

- Has gone 0-2 with a 4.96 ERA with 16 strikeouts and 2 walks in 4 postseason appearances (2 starts).
- Member of the 2015 World Champion Royals…pitched 5.0 innings in ALCS Game 3 @ Blue Jays (2 ER) and 1.0 scoreless inning in World Series Game 3 @ Mets…5.0 innings was the longest relief outing by a Royals pitcher in a postseason game since Charlie Leibrandt in Game 7 of the 1985 ALCS @ Blue Jays (5.1 IP).
- Made the start for the Braves in the first Wild Card Game in 2012 vs. Cardinals (2 ER in 6.1 IP).

BACK TO WHERE IT BEGAN

Earned his first win vs. D-backs on May 31, 2009 @ Chase Field (1 ER in 6.0 IP)…walked his first batter faced (Kelly Johnson) which prompted a mound visit from Chipper Jones…he then retired 14 of the next 15 hitters.

Has undergone 2 "Tommy John" surgeries on Aug. 8, 2010 and March 18, 2014.

PROSPECTING

Tabbed the Braves' ninth-best prospect entering the 2009 season by Baseball America.

CREATING WIND IN SANTA ANA

Attended Santa Ana (Calif.) Junior College…selected All-Orange Empire Conference as an infielder in 2006, hitting .332 with 10 homers and 42 RBI…also served as the team's closer, posting 16 saves and a 2.23 ERA in 44.1 innings.

HIGH SCHOOL DIARIES

MOST 4+ HIT GAMES IN THE NL IN 2017

DJ LEMAHIEU / COL	5
DAVID PERALTA / ARI	4
BRYCE HARPER / WSH	4
ENDER INCIARTE / ATL	4

His nickname is the "Freight Train"…the name was given to him by D-backs broadcaster Steve Berthiaume based on his style of play.

IT'S LIT

Is the self-proclaimed clubhouse DJ…goes by DJFT, short for DJ Freight Train.

RUN!

Recorded his first career inside-the-park home run (13th in team history) on Aug. 12, 2017 vs. Cubs.

QUITE LITERALLY

Logged his first career walk-off plate appearance with a bases-loaded walk on Sept. 27, 2017 vs. Giants.

BIG LEAGUE DREAMS

Met Tony La Russa while at Double-A Mobile and was speechless…they chatted about his swing and La Russa told him that he would "see him soon"…David was promoted to the D-backs 2 weeks later when he got the news from Andy Green.

SOLID START

Selected by the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA as the D-backs' 2014 Rookie of the Year after leading NL rookies in slugging pct. (.450), OPS (.770) and triples (9).

4

Set the club record with 4 doubles on April 22, 2017 vs. Dodgers, the first Major Leaguer to do so since the Red Sox' Brock Holt on June 1, 2014 vs. Rays, and the first NL player since the Rockies' Jeff Baker on May 30, 2008 @ Cubs.

HOW YOU DOIN'?

His favorite TV show is "Friends"…says it helped him learn English and watches it every night after coming home from the ballpark…his favorite character is Joey.

WHATEVER WORKS

Was motivated to learn English after meeting his wife, Jordan, in Jupiter, Fla…met in a bar when her friends pinched his butt…took a friend out on their dates to help with the language barrier then got worried that he may flirt with her, so he learned English quickly.

- His .903 OPS in 2015 was second among NL outfielders, trailing the Nationals' Bryce Harper (1.116).
- Was 1 of 3 D-backs with 10+ triples and 10+ homers in a season, joining Steve Finley (1999, 2003) and Stephen Drew (2008-10).
- His .360 average after the All-Star Break in ranked second by a D-back all-time and was third in the NL.

He and his wife, Jordan, welcomed their first child, Sofia, on Aug. 14, 2017, also David's 30th birthday.

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

- Signed with the Cardinals as a pitcher at 17 in 2004 for about $35,000… pitched in 27 games (18 starts) from 2005-07 before making the transition to the outfield.
- Had a mid-90's fastball and a good "12-to-6" breaking ball before his first shoulder (labrum) surgery…got hurt again and thought his baseball dream was over…was released on Cinco de Mayo in 2009 and hasn't liked that holiday ever since…asked the Cardinals to allow him to stay for 2 weeks after being released so he could see his wife graduate from college.
- His parents persuaded him to try hitting again and first played in a government-run independent league in Venezuela…went back to the United States, without an agent, and was given the number of Eduardo "Eddie" Dennis, who managed the independent Rio Grande Valley WhiteWings…rented a car and drove to practice and was signed after his hitting session.
- Worked at McDonalds to make enough gas money to drive to Texas to play with Rio Grande…slept on an air mattress in his first season with the WhiteWings.
- Had interest from the Rays and Angels before signing with the D-backs in 2013…Arizona scout Chris Carminucci wanted him to come to Phoenix for a tryout in 2013 but couldn't afford to travel…Carminucci then came to Florida to see him hit in a batting cage in St. Petersburg…texted and called Carminucci every day but Arizona's Spring Training rosters were full so they couldn't sign him at that time…started the season playing independent baseball, and had to wait until July before signing with the D-backs.

NOM NOM NOM

His hardest adjustment when coming to the United States was learning the different kinds of food…once went to China Buffet and thought the wasabi was guacamole and mistakenly ate a spoonful.

BABY BALLER

Started playing baseball at 3 years old at the encouragement of his father, who worked for Bridgestone Tires for almost 40 years…played with Major Leaguers Felix Doubront, Alex Torres and Yangervis Solarte growing up.

DON'T MESS WITH THE JOHAN

His favorite player growing up was fellow Venezuelan, Johan Santana…has yet to meet him.

MEOW

Has a cat named Maximus…named after a character from his favorite movie, "Gladiator."

ROLLIN'

His favorite food is sushi.

FOR THE KIDS

Visited the MLB Urban Youth Academy in Compton, Calif., on June 14, 2014.

Attended the University of Notre Dame…was an All-Big East first team outfielder in 2008 and 2009 and All-Big East third baseman in 2007…was Notre Dame's first back-to-back team MVP since Aaron Heilman (2000-01)…was the second player in school history to lead the team in hitting in 3 straight seasons.

M-V-P

Named the 2012 Pacific Coast League Playoff Most Valuable Player, and MVP of the Triple-A National Championship Game.

IT'S GOOD!

Was going to try out to be a walk-on kicker at Notre Dame but hurt his quad the night before climbing a fence.

ATHLETIC DUO

LATE BLOOMER

Freshman year of high school, he was 5-foot-2, 115 lbs., then grew to 5-9 by his junior year and added a couple of inches his senior year…got hurt so much over those 2 years because he grew so quickly, which was "frustrating and devastating."

SAFETY FIRST!

Had to wait to tell his mom about his 2015 All-Star selection because he knew she was on a bike ride and would fall off reading the text, which she did earlier that year.

G'DAY, MATE!

Luis Gonzalez presents Paul Goldschmidt with the 2017 Luis Gonzalez Award.

LUIS GONZALEZ AWARD

In 2015, the Luis Gonzalez Award was created, which will be given annually to the D-backs player who best exemplifies the talents, spirit and heart of the D-backs legend both on and off the field, as voted by his teammates, coaches and clubhouse staff.

Paul Goldschmidt was honored in a pregame ceremony on Sept. 25, 2017 as winner of the annual award.

"Paul Goldschmidt is an MVP both on the field and off," said Gonzalez. "While his talents as a player often go unnoticed by the national media, so does his approach to giving back and that is by design. He never wants the recognition or the attention but he is a true leader for our team and the community."

One of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship, Gonzalez became the first former player to have his number retired by the D-backs during a pre-game ceremony in 2010.

NO-HITTERS

RANDY JOHNSON ON MAY 18, 2004 @ BRAVES

Adept at setting records throughout his career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, at Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since the Yankees' David Cone on July 18, 1999 vs. Montreal. It was also the first perfecto in the National League since the Expos' Dennis Martinez on July 28, 1991 @ Dodgers.

JACKIE ROBINSON

MLB CAREER

YEARS: 1947-1956

AWARDS: 6x NL All-Star (1949-54), 1947 Rookie of the Year, 1949 NL Most Valuable Player.

NOTES: Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997, that Jackie Robinson's No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball, barring players on any Major League club to wear the number…as an exception to the retired number policy, MLB has recently begun honoring Robinson's legacy by allowing players to wear No. 42 on April 15 each season to celebrate Jackie Robinson Day…for the 60th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut, MLB invited players to wear No. 42 on Jackie Robinson Day in 2007…the gesture was originally the idea of Ken Griffey, Jr., who sought Rachel Robinson's permission to wear the number…after receiving her permission, Selig not only allowed Griffey to wear the number, but also extended an invitation to all clubs to do the same.
